HoH members had a BIG presence in this year's Ms. Senior Michigan Pageant that was held on July 24th @ OPC in Rochester, MI. Congratulations to Heidi Coffman who was 2nd Runner Up.

Other participants included Sally Noveras and Denise Spencer.

Diana Schreiber was the Pageant Director and Marion Upper is the State Administrator.

Highlights of the event included Diana Scheiber singing a tribute song, "When You Wish Upon A Star", for Ms. Senior Michigan 2017 – Rae McIntosh – who passed away earlier this year and Joanie Rizzio singing "What the World Needs Now", presenting the banner to the 1st Runner Up and being a Big Sister to Denise Spencer!

Getting to Know..

Diana Schreiber is the new Pageant Director for the Ms. Senior Michigan Pageant. Diana was raised in New York and Pennsylvania but she took up permanent residency in Michigan when she entered Michigan State University as a freshman in 1965. Graduating with a B.A. in English Literature and Secondary English Education, she switched careers and became a Child Protective Services Worker for the State of Michigan. Retiring in 2003 after 34 years with the state, she finally had the opportunity to pursue her dream of singing and acting on stage. She has performed with many local theatre groups in a variety of musical plays and productions. A few of her favorite roles have been Cousin Nettie in “Carousel”, Mama Morton in “Chicago” and Aunt Eller in “Oklahoma!”. She also has a passion for singing, which aided in her desire to compete in the Ms. Senior Michigan Pageant. She belongs to several song groups and performs regularly at senior living residences and other venues.
